Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Information

"Quid Pro Quo" Statement: IRS rules require a written disclosure statement to donors when a contribution is partly for goods or services. Contributors receive no goods or services in return for contributions to the AFAF Campaign. 100% of AFAF contributions are passed to the designated charity. Contributions to the AFAF are deductible for Federal Income Tax purposes as an itemized deduction.

Receipts: The IRS requires donors to obtain a receipt for any single contribution of $250 or more. Donations made through payroll deduction each paycheck are regarded as a separate payment and a separate receipt is not required. Contributors may obtain a receipt for payroll deduction or cash contributions made to an authorized AFAF Campaign keyworker by asking for the receipt portion of the contributions form (AF Form 2561). Donors making contributions of $250 or more directly to HQ AFPC or to any of the AFAF affiliates may request a receipt for tax purposes.

TAKING CARE OF OUR OWN

FOR AIRMEN & GUARDIANS, BY AIRMEN & GUARDIANS

Your contributions to the Air Force Assistance Fund (AFAF) will lend critical support to your fellow Airmen, Guardians, and their families — active duty and retired, officers and enlisted.

Because of your gifts, we can help with emergency needs, educational assistance and family support...and provide comfort and dignity to Air Force and Space Force widows and widowers.

And one day, should you or your family need us, an AFAF charity will be there for you because Airmen & Guardians take care of our own.

If you know of someone in need, please contact the appropriate AFAF charity – it is our mission to serve the Air Force Family.

Your support reaches Airmen & Guardians and their loved ones around the world. From their hearts to yours, thank you for your gift.

Contributions to the AFAF Campaign qualify for IRS charitable contributions.

AIR FORCE AID SOCIETY

Incorporated in 1942, Air Force Aid Society (AFAS) is an official charity for the U.S. Air Force and U.S. Space Force. AFAS works to support and enhance the U.S. Air Force and U.S. Space Force missions by providing emergency financial assistance, educational support, and community programs for Air Force and Space Force families. AFAS utilizes 100 percent of every contribution received to help Airmen, Guardians, and their families.

"The assistance given to me supplied my family the break needed to get back to a stable financial position. I'm not ashamed to say that I needed help, and my wingmen rescued my family," said 2Lt Josh Garrett.

A donation of any amount will help our Air Force and Space Force families when they are faced with difficult life challenges. Please help us make a difference with your support and continue our mission of helping Airmen and Guardians when they need us most. Donate today!

AIR FORCE ENLISTED VILLAGE

The Air Force Enlisted Village (AFEV) mission is simple: To Provide a Home for surviving spouses of retired enlisted Airmen. Since 1968, AFEV has been committed to providing homes to thousands of AF widows at Bob Hope Village, our independent living community, or at Hawthorn House, our assisted living and memory support residence.

Your gift to AFEV matters. A monthly gift of $20 provides bus transportation for one year for a Bob Hope Village resident to go to and from medical appointments, the commissary, and the BX. Having access to regularly scheduled transportation gives residents the independence they desire with the safety they require.

A monthly gift of $100 provides 3-4 hours of direct care monthly for one memory support resident at Hawthorn House, our assisted living residence.

Because of you, AFEV residents lead happy, healthy, and active lives in a safe and secure community with their pride and independence intact. Please make a gift today to the Air Force Enlisted Village.

LEMAY FOUNDATION

The LeMay Foundation's mission is to provide financial support to widows and widowers of Airmen and Guardian retirees. These grants are awarded to the Enlisted and Officer's surviving spouses. We would not be able to provide a better life for them, without you.

We are here for these spouses who supported their families during active duty service and through their retirement years. Monthly grants help with many types of their expenses. Your donation of $20 assists a spouse with prescription delivery or $100 supports meal service. One Time allotments are to aid with unexpected bills. With your contributions, it will go toward dental work, minor home repairs, rent or mortgage delinquencies, medical and prescription needs.

We are committed to keeping these spouses in their home, near their family and friends, as we stay true to the vision of our founders, General and Mrs. Curtis LeMay. Together as an Air Force and Space Force family we can honor their promise. When you give to the Air Force Assistance Fund, you provide a future for them.

AIR FORCE VILLAGES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

Widowed spouses of retired Air Force and Space Force officers receive critical care and housing thanks to your gifts to the Air Force Villages Charitable Foundation (AFVCF).

Over 92% of those receiving assistance reside in assisted living, skilled nursing, or memory care, truly in the most vulnerable phase of their lives. Increased longevity and rising healthcare costs have created a crisis for many seniors, but your assistance guarantees these widows and widowers always have a home here at Blue Skies of Texas (formerly Air Force Village).

Your support can provide the following:

- Prescription Copay: $15
- Transportation to appointments: $50
- Monthly home health service: $200
- Long-term skilled nursing care: $2350+
- Memory care: $3500+

Just like you, these spouses served our nation, proudly donning all the risk and hardship associated with military life. Here's your chance to say, "thank you for your service" by donating to the Air Force Villages Charitable Foundation.
